Lotta Cash, a wealthy widow, must be on the lookout. The evil Dogsbreath Devereaux, M.D., plans to marry Lotta so he can inherit her fortune and her late husband's clinic. Helping him is the nasty nurse, Hilda Hatchet, whom he promises to wed after he gets rid of Lotta. Wild? Well, talk about medical mania when the insanely jealous Hilda catches Dogsbreath flirting with our heroine, Wendy March. We can only hope that Dr. Phil Good, our hero, can save Wendy and the unsuspecting Lotta from certain death. With an abundance of zany patients, wild tunes ("How Do You Bandage a Broken Heart?", "Emergency," "Do the Bop," etc.) and a hilarious plot, this musical melodrama will certainly have you in stitches all the way! As they say, "Nurses! Foiled again!"

A DEADLY HABIT: THE SUPERBOWL MASSACRE

By Tom Chiodo

NOVEMBER 15-17, 7 P.M. | NOVEMBER 17 & 18, 1 P.M.

Madonna Hall, 1793 Elm Ave. | Wabeno, WI 54566

Tickets
$15

A sports widow is "mad as hell" and she's not going to take it anymore! The football commissioner mysteriously resigns. A cheerleader stages her own kidnapping. A referee is up to his ears in drug deals and bad calls. This deadly game goes into overtime for an intricate scheme of revenge and cover ups that invites a lot of audience participation.
